

In the Middle Ages Occitania (the actual southern half of France) is led by noble lords who share their political power. But Occitania is united by a common culture and a common language. Its culture is glorious and flourishing at this time of prosperity: The Troubadours praise courtly love (fin 'Amor) while the Lenga d'Òc spreads in all European's cultivated circles.

Since Roman times, Occitania produces a wide variety of wines still recognized and appreciated by international wine lovers. Its sophisticated cuisine is at the origin of many world-famous dishes.

Le Sang des Seigneurs perpetuates the spirit of the Occitan lords as a tribute to these heroes of the resistance against the northern barons and the Inquisition who confiscated their lands.

Our wines are the fruit of our passion and a close collaboration with talented winemakers. Le Sang des Seigneurs is an elegant expression of our terroirs that offers wine amateurs an authentic tasting experience,

Taste the true values of the land and feel the spirit of the knights!
